SPEAKER: KELSEY WELLER

SERIES: JESUS THE KING

SCRIPTURE REFERENCE:

- Mark 12v38-44
 - Luke 6
 - Matthew 6v24

ICE BREAKER:

1. Do you think of yourself more as a saver or spender?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

2. In Mark 12, Jesus moves from confrontation to confrontation with people who are failing to live up to the call to care for people well. What do Jesus' interactions throughout Mark 12 show us about his heart for people?
3. What experiences or moments throughout your life have been like neon signs pointing you to Jesus?
4. Do you agree with the idea that our attitudes matter more than our actions? Why or why not?
5. If you were to take an inventory of your use of your time and talents, your bank statements, and your attitude, what would you say has captured your heart?
6. If it is true that God is without need, why do you think he cares so deeply about our giving?
7. How do you think the gift transforms the giver? How have you experienced this throughout your life?
8. How does II Corinthians 8v9 impact your view of generosity?

CHALLENGE QUESTIONS:

9. What difference is there between radical generosity and foolish action?
10. On Sunday, Pastor Kelsey mentioned that our consistent acts of generosity could function like a metronome that draws our heart back to what truly matters. What could you begin doing today that might help you in this way?
